Child Study Center Foundation

Project Partners provided consulting and project management services to the development staff of this foundation including a development audit, executive staff searches, (marketing/events and executive director), the design draft of an annual giving campaign, giving society and planned giving approach, development of the endowment campaign staff campaign component, special event fundraising management, and community relations and marketing consultation and implementation. Repeated consulting and project management assignment in 2014 and 2017 during key staff transitions with a focus on grant program and special event management.

“I have worked with a number of fundraising and community relations consultants through the years, but none as personable, professional, and capable as the Project Partners team. You brought not only sound advice to our Foundation projects, but also an incredible energy and enthusiasm that enabled us to work side by side to accomplish the goals at hand.”

Joyce Elizabeth Mauk, MD,
 President/CEO and Medical Director
 Child Study Center

“Project Partners was able to provide exactly what we needed at a time when a major endowment campaign was consuming most of our small department’s resources. They provided responsive, professional, personable consulting and project management services that greatly increased our capacity. Lerii and her team were respectful of the organization’s needs, quick studies, deadline and results-oriented, and fabulous generators of ideas.”
